International Research Ship Operators

IRSO Vancouver 2024

Health, Welfare and Civility at Sea Workshop, Monday 23 September 2024

Start	End	Topic	Facilitator
1300	1315	1. Introduction • Briefly introducing the topic of ship crew welfare. • Explaining why crew welfare is essential for the well-being of seafarers (on research vessels.)	Toni Moate Rose Dufour
1315	1415	2. Managing time at sea • Regulations and Requirements for managing work hours - Joost van der Zwaag • Issues for crew members at sea - Yasuhiro Namba • Open discussion	Toni
1415	1445	3. Social and recreational activities • Crew welfare initiatives – Eric King • Open discussion	Rose
1445	1500	4. Afternoon Tea
1500	1545	5. Building a culture of civility • Respect at Sea – Ella Darlington • Crucial Conversations – Greg Foothead • Protocols and procedures against harassment onboard the Spanish RV fleet - Neus Romà Buyreu • Open discussion	Toni
1545	1630	6. Tools, Resources & Best Practices • GWMMA (George Washington Martine Medical Access) • NOAA - RDML Amanda Goeller • Open discussion	Rose
1630	1700	7. Conclusion • Summarizing the key points discussed. • Discussion of issues for future topics • Reinforcing the importance of prioritizing crew welfare for a safer, more productive, and happier environment.	Toni/Rose