

REGISTRATION FEES

IN-PERSON:

Registration Categories All fees are in Canadian dollars ($CAD) - taxes included	Rate December 1, 2021 - April 1, 2022	Rate after April 1, 2022
Regular - Participants staying at the Château Laurier	$490	$590
Regular - Participants staying at a non-conference hotel	$590	$690
Students	$265	$365
Reduced for partners (community members, NGOs, indigenous organizations) from Middle- and Low-income countries (according to World Bank criteria*)	$265	$365
1-Day	$170	$270

* Low & middle income | Data \(worldbank.org\)

ONLINE:

Registration Categories All fees are in Canadian dollars ($CAD) - taxes included	Rate
Regular	$150
Students	$50
Reduced for partners (community members, NGOs, indigenous organizations) from Middle- and Low-income countries (according to World Bank criteria*)	$50

* Low & middle income | Data \(worldbank.org\)

In-person, registration fees include:

- Attendance to all the conference sessions
- Morning and Afternoon coffee breaks
- Lunches
- Welcome Reception on Sunday April 24, 2022

Online, registration fees include:

- Online attendance at all plenary sessions
- Online attendance to all thematic sessions and roundtables
- Possibility to interact during these sessions with the hybrid mode

ACCOMMODATIONS

We encourage you to book your stay at the Château Laurier. Accommodations are provided at the special Mining the Connection conference rate of $159 per night.

All reservations will be made individually. Reservations must be made by March 25, 2022 by phone at 1-800-463-4453, or by fax at 418-524-8768, or by email at reservation@vieuxquebec.com. It is important to specify the confirmation number: 38818 or Mining the Connections.

IMPORTANT DATES

- April 1st, 2022: Deadline for standard registrations ($100 markup after this date)
- March 21, 2022: Deadline for cancellations with full refund
- March 25, 2022: Deadline for the Château Laurier reservations